CRIMINAL SIDE.

Rule of Practice No. 77, dated 7th December 1907.

Under Section 554 of the Code of Criminal Procedure and with the concurrence of Government, the Chief Court has framed and issues the following rules in supersession of the rules noted on the margin for regulating the practice of the Criminal Courts in regard to the disposal of records.

- | | |
|---|--|
| Rule of Practice No. 3, dated 28th May 1878 | |
| Do 13, dated 11th July 1879 | |
| Do 22, dated 3rd August 1880 | |
| Do 66, dated 6th December 1898 | |
1. The records of the Sessions and Assistant Sessions Judges will be preserved in the Central Records attached to the District Court.
 2. The Assistant Commissioners and Munsifs who are Magistrates should send all the records of the Criminal cases disposed of by them to the District Magistrates' Courts six months after their disposal, where they will be kept and dealt with under these rules.
 3. The Amildar Magistrates will keep the records of Criminal Cases disposed of by them in their own records.
 4. An index of the form prescribed in A of the Appendix will be put up with the record of every case on its first institution in each Court, and each paper, as it is filed with the record, will be entered in such index.
 5. Every record shall, after its completion and immediately before it is deposited in the record room, be divided into parts as shown in the table given in B of the Appendix, facilitate this division each paper will, soon as it is filed with the record, be numbered in the index as appertaining to one or another of such parts.

6. The parts of records described in the table given in C of the Appendix will be retained for the periods respectively specified against them from the date of their completion, provided that in any case the presiding Judge or Magistrate may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, direct that any of the papers in any one part be transferred to any other part for which a longer period of retention is prescribed, in which case the fact will be noted in the index, and the papers dealt with as if they had belonged from the commencement to the part to which they were so transferred.

7. The Court Registers, books and papers, described in the table given in D of the appendix, will be retained for the periods respectively specified against them, reckoning from their dates, or from the dates at which they close.

Provided that a Sessions Judge or a District Magistrate may, in his discretion, direct the retention, for a longer period or permanently, of papers which he may consider likely to be useful in the future as containing the results of inquiries or other information, or the opinions of experienced officers in matters connected with the general administration of Justice, and provided also that no Criminal Court subordinate to the Magistrate of the District shall cause any papers to be destroyed under the next succeeding rule without having first obtained from such Magistrate of the District, permission in writing to do so.

8. Where any document, of which the destruction is ordered by these rules is, before it has been destroyed, made evidence in any other proceeding, the rule regulating its destruction will be the rule applicable to evidence filed in such proceeding, where the period prescribed by such last mentioned rule is in excess of the period prescribed by the rule which originally governed its destruction.

9. All records, books and papers, described in the tables given in C and D of the Appendix, must be destroyed without fail at the expiration of the periods respectively indicated against them, and the records should be examined once a quarter in every Court to see that the rule has been duly observed.

10. Records, books and papers to be destroyed under rule 5 are to be burnt in the presence of the record-keeper. The practice of selling them as waste paper is prohibited, except in the case of item 16 in Schedule D which should be sold by action.

11. To enable parties, who have filed documents in Court, to withdraw them before the periods appointed for their destruction, a notice will be published in the Mysore Gazette in July of each year, stating that all documents filed in the Magisterial cases (to be therein enumerated) will, unless previously reclaimed, be destroyed at the expiration of the period indicated in the notice, and the following note will also be entered at the foot of every copy of an order granted to any of the parties to the proceeding in which such order was made, or to the pleaders or authorized agents of such parties:—

“The parties should apply as soon as possible for the return of all exhibits which they may wish to preserve, as the record will be liable to be destroyed after three years from this date.”

12. The above rules do not apply to non-magisterial records of revenue officers, such as Gazette files, etc., but apply only to the Judicial records of those officers.

V. A. RAJARATNA MUDALIAR,
Registrar.
